Mr. Pamem Sambaiya has this day been enrolled in the Judicial Commissioner's Office at Bangalore as a Pleader in the Courts of Mysore and Coorg.

J. D. GORDON,
Judl. Commr.

CIRCULAR.

No. 24, dated the 16th June 1874.

The following rules laid down for the guidance of the Bengal Police in respect of the occurrence of "unnatural or sudden deaths," and the following Endorsement from the Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, in regard to the "production of telegrams in Courts of Justice" are published for the guidance of Magistrates and Police Officers of the Mysore Province.

J. L. PEARSE,
Offg. Judl. Commr.

UNNATURAL AND SUDDEN DEATHS.

I.—In cases of suspected poisoning.

1. Bring away under seal any food (especially átá or sweetmeats, drink, tobacco or drugs) which may be in the house or near the body.

2. If vomiting has occurred, swab up with a clean rag any vomited matter which may be on the person or bed, and seal up the rag in a packet.

3. Bring away under seal any clothing, wood or mud flooring into which any vomited matter has soaked.

4. As carefully bottle and seal the contents of any vessel containing vomited matter.

5. Ascertain the exact time between the receipt of food, drink or medicine, the appearance of symptoms and occurrence of death.

II.—In cases of hanging or strangulation.

1. Note, if possible, before cutting down the body or removing the strangulating medium, any lividity of face, especially of lips and eyelids, any projection of the eyes, the state of the tongue—whether enlarged and protruded or compressed between the lips—the escape of any fluid from mouth and nostrils and direction of its flow.

2. On cutting down the body or removing strangulating medium, note particularly the state of the neck, whether bruised along line of strangulation.

3. Note the direction of the mark, whether circular or oblique.

4. Note the state of the thumbs, whether crossed over the palm.

5. If possible, bring away the materials by which hanging or strangulation has been affected.

III.—On finding a body in a tank or well.

1. Note any marks of blood around the mouth or on the sides of the well or tank.

2. On removing the body, carefully examine for and note any external marks of injury, especially about the head and neck.

3. Note state of skin, whether smooth or rough.

4. Examine the hands and carefully remove any thing they may hold.

IV.—In the case of a body found murdered in an open road.

1. Note the number, character and appearance of any injuries.

2. Note carefully any indications of sex, especially bring away a jaw and the bones of the pelvis.

3. If any suspicions of poisoning, bring away (sealed) the earth from where the stomach would have been.

4. If a body, presumed to have been murdered, has been burned, collect and bring any fragments of bones which may be found among the ashes.

PRODUCTION OF TELEGRAMS IN COURTS OF JUSTICE.

From Colonel C. H. Dickens, R. A., Secretary to the Govt. of India, Public Works Dept. (Telegraph), To the Director General of Telegraphs in India, No. 151, T, dated Fort William, the 12th March 1874.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 311, dated 21st October last, soliciting the orders of the Government of India as to the course which should be adopted by Officers of the Telegraph Department when called upon to produce telegrams in Courts of Justice.

2. In reply, I am to state that the following procedure should be followed:—

1*st*.—When such requisitions are received, a reference should always be made to Government, or chief administrating authorities of the Province, if there is time to do so, and the Court sending the requisition would ordinarily grant time for the reference.

2*nd*.—If there is no time for this reference and the Telegraph officials think the production of the Telegram unobjectionable on public grounds, it may be produced. If they see any objection, an official of the Department should attend with the message and state the objection. If the telegram concerns public affairs, it should not in any case be disclosed without an order from Government.

3. It must be understood that the foregoing procedure is to be made applicable only in the case of the particular message or messages specified in the requisition, and that no order to search for a message, or inspect the records, should be obeyed without consent of Government.
